A quick intro

Welcome to the Six-Figure Stylist Academy! I am so honored and grateful that you're here and I can't wait to get started on this journey with you! But before we get started, can I just started bu saying how PROUD I am of you?!

I know firsthand how crazy scary it feels to take that first major step and invest in yourself. Feeling a mixture of nervousness, excitement, hope...it's all completely normal. The fact that you're feeling nervous (or even a little scared) just proves to me how invested and ready you are for this journey.

Trust me when I tell you that you can 100% do this! There is no right or wrong way. The only way you can "fail" at a mentorship is if you don't give it your all. If you hold yourself back from reaching your full potential. If your not honest with me or yourself. Otherwise? Prepare to totally dominate this eight-week mentorship!

This eight-week course will walk you through how to create a solid foundation on which we can rebuild your current beauty business (and life) into the thriving career you've always dreamed of. I want you to start living a life you are OBSESSED with! I want you to be able to wake up everyday feeling so grateful for the life you have created!

And that starts right here, right now. Wherever you are in your life of business, I want you to pause and take a moment to acknowledge yourself. With all the craziness of life, the demands or the industry, and millions of other things you could be doing with your time: you are right here, doing the damn thing. You are a doer. An action-taker. A person willing to do the foundational work to get to where the true magic happens!

You can do this! Let's get started!

My role: Founder of the Six-Figure Stylist Academy + Mentor to the Beauty Community. By your side with every step of this eight week program

Are you living a life you're obsessed with? I wasn't for a really long time,

I have been in the beauty industry for 20 years, and I always had the expectation to just stay in my lane. I did the grind. I lived paycheck to paycheck. I came home exhausted and overworked with little reward.

And for a long time, I stayed in that space, assuming that is was a good as it was going to get, that life would always be that way.

This course was created for anyone who wants more. Who not only dreams big, but is ready to put those dreams into action and make them a reality! I dreamt a lot too. And then I started 'doing' and only then did I start to see things happen. This course is everything I wish I had when I was in the early stages of my career. Heck, even the process of creating it has helped me learn and grow!

When I transitioned into a career of mentorship and coaching, I knew I wouldn't have all of the answers. But I also knew that no one else was talking about this in our industry. I knew I was made for more than what the voice inside my head was telling me. I know you are, too. There comes a moment when you reach a fork in the road. You can continue on the same path you've been going, knowing fully what to expect and what will greet you at the end. Or you can take a risk and go down a new path, experience new hurdles and ultimately come out stronger and better for it. You're here because you're ready to follow that new path. Thank you for trusting me to help you navigate it.

Let's get to work!
